RELEVANCE OF CATHOLIC FEASTS CELEBRATIONS

In all catholic feast celebration we are learning the faith through celebration While the feasts of the Catholic Church might "seem to be a crazy quilt of customs," they are in reality so much more than that - if we take the time to understand their origins, their meanings, and what they teach us. It gives us the opportunity to do just that, and so to allow our own faith to be strengthened and even transformed by our celebration of our Church's feasts. "They are lessons, too. They teach us. They evangelize us," and thus prepare us to evangelize others, Cardinal Wuerl and Aquilina write. "They tell and retell the stories of the Gospel. They proclaim the dogmas of the faith." As such, "they are our dress rehearsal for heaven," drawing us closer to God, helping us to know Him better and worship Him more perfectly, preparing us for that eternal existence when "we shall share God's life intimately in heaven."At the same time, our Catholic feast days and special seasons are also vital to us along our earthly journey toward that eternal life. They draw us more deeply into the knowledge and practice of our faith, and equip us for our essential earthly vocation of sharing that faith with others, and so bringing them also closer to Christ.

Indeed, the very essence of our feast days is that of celebration. "All the feasts are celebrations of Jesus Christ," And it is that spirit of joyful celebration that makes religious feasts so effective in teaching us our faith, drawing us more joyfully into the life of Christ and his Church, and assisting us in inviting others to experience that joy with us.

"Keeping the feasts is part of our commitment to live as a child of God," Cardinal Wuerl and Aquilina write. "Christians benefit spiritually when we understand the Christian calendar - when we've come to know 'the reason for the season.'" "Through the many memorials of the saints and martyrs, ordinary people became familiar with the great historic exemplars of heroic virtue. And of course, while each of our feasts celebrates something historic -events in the life of Christ, the lives of the saints, miraculous interventions - they are "not merely the recollection of past events," the authors quote the Catechism of the Catholic Church. "In the liturgical celebration of these events, they become in a certain way present and real."

Saint Faustina, the nun who inspired the annual feast of Divine Mercy: "Almost every feast of the Church gives me a deeper knowledge of God and a special grace." The church embraces the many different cultural traditions that make the Church truly universal, and that allow for each culture to mark its own Catholic heritage with its own unique festivals commemorating its own local devotions and saints."The Church is both a mother and a teacher,and the feasts are always timely lessons she delivers to her children - giving us something we otherwise lack, or fortifying us against some emerging challenge."

So it is the time to increase our faith ,time to proclaim our faith and to foster Christian fraternity in our faith community .We all appreciate and Thankful to St.Anns Koodarayogam for sponsoring the feast. Let us all come together and give thanks to our loving God and our loving mother Mary for all their blessings on us each and every moment of our lives. I pray and wish you all the blessings of our Lord Jesus Christ during this great feast celebration.

May god bless you all. Suni Achan

Congratulations

To overall champions of Houston Forane Bible Kalolsavam.

It gives me pleasure to see our parishioners who participated in Bible Kalolsavam competitions won the overall championship. I really congratulate all participants, winners and the coordinators of this competitions. It is really the success of all who worked hard for the Bible Kalolsavam. I really appreciate all parents, teachers, committee members and program coordinators. I believe that it is the success of our team work and hard work. According to Andrew Carnegie ‘Teamwork is the ability to work together toward a common vision. The ability to direct individual accomplishments toward organizational objectives. It is the fuel that allows common people to attain uncommon results.’ We succeeded greatly because of our team work.

We need prayer, unity and hard work in every success. It is the clear evidence that we won the overall championship only because of our unity, hard work, commitment and prayer. The committee under the leadership of Johny Cherukara, Johnson Manalel, Saji Pullickeel, Peter Chazhikatt and Sr. Josia and all sub committees worked hard for the success of it. And also the parents, teachers, Koodarayogam office bearers, and Rev. Sisters dedicated their time and money for this great success. I congratulate each and every one for your effort and hard-work . May our Mother Mary intercede for you and our God the father bless you all .

Best wishes to the Bulletin Supplement

It is very pleasure to know that our church bulletin is completing one year of its first edition. I really appreciate our church bulletin committee as they celebrate the first anniversary of our bulletin. Our parish bulletin is really useful to our parishioners to know about the news of the church and its activities. It is a great achievement that every issues of bulletin were published in time without any delay. They have been working hard for every issue . And also I appreciate the committee for their hard work to publish a special supplement in connection with the anniversary and Bible Kalolsavam. We are are grateful to all sponsors of our bulletin and the supplement. I wish you all best for the supplement of our bulletin. May God Bless you all.

Suni Achan

It was an honor to serve as the coordinator for the Bible Kalolsavam 2018 representing our church. First and foremost, I would like to thank Fr. Suni Padinjarekkara, for giving me the opportunity to coordinate and serve in this position. It was through the support of all the office bearers, volunteers, parents, and our exceptionally talented children who worked diligently in spite of their busy schedule to make this event such a great success. I am proud to say that those who excelled in the Houston competitions advanced to Dallas for the regional competitions where Houston earned the title of “Overall Regional Championship” competing with the Dallas and San Antonio Parishes.

It was very inspiring to see both the children and the adults showcase their knowledge about the Bible and the teachings of our Catholic Faith through dancing, singing, elocutions, skits, Bible quizzes, essay writing, story writing, fancy dress, story telling, Nadavili, Vanakkamassa Pattukal, and Purathana pattu . It was evident that such an event brought enthusiasm, unity, and cooperation among our parishioners. Many friendships blossomed and many existing friendships were strengthened during the memorable road trip to and from Dallas. Everyone was able to take pride in our Knanaya culture and traditions by showcasing their many talents. Thank you once again for your continued support and cooperation. Once again, hearty congratulations to all the participants and a special thank you to the editors of this special edition of the Bible Kalolsavam, Malakha.

Thanking you for your support,
Johnson Cherukara
Bible Kalolsavam 2018 Coordinator

Message from bulletin team

As we celebrate our church feast and the anniversary of this Parish bulletin, we want to say thank you for giving us this opportunity to help the parish with this messenger or Malagha. It started as the brain child of Saji achen and now with Suni Achen it's becoming even more vibrant. We greatly appreciate the help from the parish trustees, secretary, PRO and parish council members in ensuring we have the information ready for printing. The guidance and prayers of our Reverend sisters is also graciously appreciated. We have to especially thank our advertisement sponsors who have helped publish the bulletin without cost to the parish. We as a team consider it a privilege that you allowed us to publish this bulletin for our parish and look forward to your continued support and guidance to take this forward. We welcome suggestions and comments at the email address pbstmaryshouston@gmail.com .
