VICAR'S MESSAGE

PROTECTING OUR PARISH ADDRESSING SOCIAL MEDIA CHALLENGES

Dear Parishioners,

I hope this message finds you well and blessed.

In today's digital age, social media plays a significant role in our lives. It has the power to bring us together, sharing the love and teachings of Christ across distances. It allows us to stay connected, informed, and uplifted by each other's experiences and insights.

However, it also has a darker side. Unfortunately, we have recently experienced the negative impact of social media firsthand. An anonymous individual or group, hiding behind a fake name, has been spreading false and damaging messages on WhatsApp. These messages are not only misleading but also harmful, causing confusion and distress within our beloved parish community.

I urge you all to be vigilant and discerning. Be cautious of the information you receive and share, especially when it comes to such anonymous sources. False communication can have serious repercussions, affecting our unity and trust. If you ever have any doubts or need clarification on any matter, please do not hesitate to reach out to the parish executive. We are here to support and guide you.

The Bible and Catholic doctrines provide us with clear teachings on the dangers of false prophets and wrong communicators. In Matthew 7:15, Jesus warns us, "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves." Similarly, the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us to uphold truth and charity in all our communications (CCC 2464-2470). These teachings remind us to remain steadfast in our faith and cautious of those who seek to deceive and divide us.

VICAR'S MESSAGE

Despite these challenges, I am deeply grateful for the unwavering support and solidarity shown by our parish community. Your commitment to our shared mission and your resilience in the face of adversity are truly inspiring. Together, we can overcome these obstacles and continue to grow in faith and love.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation. Let us continue to pray for each other and for our parish, that we may always walk in the light of Christ, guided by truth and love.

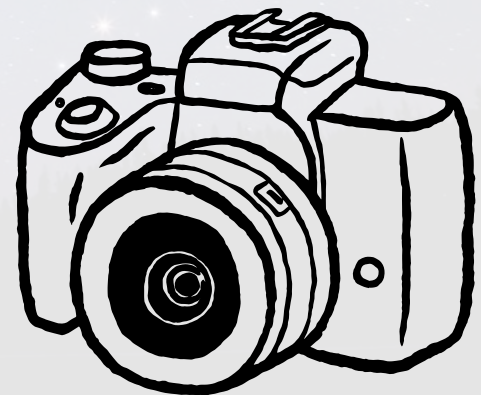

With blessings and prayers,

Fr. Abraham Mutholath
Vicar
