VICAR'S MESSAGE

FEAST OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY – PATRONESS OF OUR PARISH

Dear Parish Family,

We are entering a very special and grace-filled week as we prepare for the grand celebration of the Feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the beloved Patroness of our parish. The days of retreat, adoration, and confession are precious opportunities for us to renew our hearts and return to the Lord in deeper faith and repentance. As Mary always leads us closer to her Son, let these days of spiritual preparation help us to experience the transforming love and mercy of Jesus.

Our feast celebrations on October 17, 18, and 19 will be the culmination of our devotion, gratitude, and unity as a parish family. This year's feast is made even more meaningful as it is sponsored by our youth, the vibrant heartbeat of our community. I lovingly invite all our high school students, youth, and young adults to take an active role in this feast and allow it to strengthen your relationship with God and the Church. May this celebration ignite in you a lifelong love for our Lord and for Mother Mary, who continues to intercede for each one of us.

I urge all parents and families to support our young people with your prayers, guidance, and presence. The future of our community rests in the faith and commitment of our next generation. Let us together nurture them to be strong witnesses of Christ, faithful to our Knanaya traditions, and filled with Marian devotion.

We are truly blessed to welcome His Grace Mar Andrews Thazhath, President of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of India (CBCI), and His Excellency Mar Joy Alappatt, Bishop of the St. Thomas Syro-Malabar Catholic Diocese of Chicago, to lead us in the celebration of this great feast. Their presence is a sign of God's favor upon our parish and a source of encouragement for all of us.

Our children and youth are also preparing a special cultural evening on Sunday, October 19th, featuring inspiring performances, including the Knanaya Migration Ballet – a creative tribute to our faith, heritage, and identity. Please join us and encourage them as they joyfully express their talents in honor of our Blessed Mother.

Let us all pray fervently for the success of our main feast, that it may deepen our unity, strengthen our families, and fill our community with divine blessings. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all our youth sponsors and their parents for their generous support, dedication, and love for our Church. May our Blessed Mother reward you abundantly.

With prayerful wishes for a grace-filled feast to all,
Fr. Abraham Mutholath
Pastor
