VICAR'S MESSAGE

OUR YOUTH-SPONSORED MAIN FEAST

Dear parishioners.

With heartfelt gratitude, I thank God for the grace-filled celebration of our Parish Main Feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our beloved patroness. This year's youth-sponsored celebration, our "Youth Thirunal," was truly a time of joy, unity, and spiritual renewal.

My sincere thanks to our Youth Coordinator, Mr. Jeff Pulickathottiyil, DRE Mr. Johnson Vattamattam, and all our catechism teachers and parents for their wholehearted support in making this event a grand success.

We gave special importance to spiritual preparation through retreat, confession, rosary, and adoration, helping our community to deepen its faith. Our youth played an outstanding role in decorations, liturgical participation, processions, and cultural programs, displaying great teamwork and devotion.

This celebration brought unity among our youth and teenagers, helping them feel that the parish is their spiritual home. I encourage all our youth to continue to be active in the parish, cherishing our Church as your own family and growing together in faith and service.

May our Blessed Mother, who inspired this feast, continue to intercede for all our young people to live as witnesses of Christ.

MISSION SUNDAY

As we celebrate Mission Sunday, we remember Jesus' command: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19).

This is a special time to pray for and support all missionaries—lay ministers, consecrated brothers and sisters, priests, and bishops—who dedicate their lives to spreading the Gospel and building the Church around the world. Let us appreciate their dedication and sacrifice for the mission of Christ.

Mission Sunday also reminds us that every Christian is called to be a missionary. From the time of our Chrismation (Confirmation), we share in the Church's mission. We fulfill this calling by:

- Fostering faith in our families, especially in the upbringing of our children,
- Serving through parish ministries and catechism,
- Witnessing Christ in our workplaces, and

VICAR'S MESSAGE

- Supporting missionaries through prayer and contributions.

Jesus said, "You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8).

May this Mission Sunday renew our missionary spirit—strengthening our love for the Church and inspiring us to share Christ's message through our words, actions, and generosity.

Prayer

Lord Jesus,

You sent Your disciples to proclaim the Gospel to all nations.

Bless and protect all missionaries with courage and faith.

Renew in us the fire of the Holy Spirit that we may joyfully witness Your love in our families, parish, and the world.

Amen.
