PASTOR'S MESSAGE

FEAST OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Next Sunday, November 23rd, the Church celebrates the glorious solemnity of Christ the King, the final Sunday of the liturgical year. On this day, the Church proclaims that Jesus—crucified, risen, and exalted—is the true Lord of history and the King of all creation. His Kingdom is not built on earthly power but on truth, justice, love, and peace.

From the beginning, God promised a perfect and everlasting Kingdom. To King David, God declared that "your throne shall stand firm forever" (2 Sam 7:16). This promise finds its complete fulfillment in Jesus Christ, the Son of David and Son of God. He came into the world as the humble King of kings—born in a manger, riding on a donkey, crowned with thorns—and He will come again in glory to reign over a renewed and perfect world. His second coming will establish the final victory where every tear will be wiped away and His reign will never end.

As we reflect on this feast, the Church invites us to recognize that no earthly king, political leader, or world system can ever be perfect. Human institutions rise and fall, and history shows the limits of every earthly power. Only Christ's Kingdom is eternal, holy, and just. Therefore, our ultimate trust, loyalty, and hope must rest in Jesus alone.

At the same time, our faith calls us to live responsibly in the world. The Church teaches us to respect our spiritual shepherds—the pope, bishops, and priests—because they serve as representatives of Christ the King. Their mission is to guide, teach, and sanctify us so that we may follow Jesus faithfully. Let us support their ministry with prayer and cooperation.

We are also called to work with civil leaders, recognizing their role in preserving order and promoting the common good. Scripture urges us to pray for them (1 Tim 2:1–2). But our cooperation must never come at the cost of compromising our Christian morals and values. When earthly authorities contradict the Gospel, we must obey God rather than men (Acts 5:29), always witnessing to the truth with courage and charity.

Finally, this feast is a reminder to be spiritually watchful and alert. Satan continues to work in the world, seeking to confuse, divide, and lead souls away from Christ and His Church. The evil one often disguises false ideologies, moral confusion, or hostility to faith as if they were harmless or attractive. As disciples of the King, we must guard our hearts, stay rooted in prayer, frequent the sacraments, and remain faithful to the teachings of the Church so that nothing may draw us astray.

Dear friends, as we honor Christ the King, let us renew our allegiance to Him. Let us pray that His reign may be reflected in our families, our parish, and our lives. May His truth guide our minds, His mercy heal our hearts, and His love shape our actions.

May Christ our King bless you and your families with peace and steadfast faith.

In Christ our Lord,
Fr. Abraham Mutholath
